

Wallace Wason, PLLC Registers Trademark for Slogan, “If you have been seriously hurt, we will help you make a serious recovery. ®”

[ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA, May 15, 2024] - Wallace Wason, PLLC, a leading malpractice and injury law firm in Virginia, announces the successful registration of a US trademark for their slogan, "If you have been seriously hurt, we will help you make a serious recovery.®" The attainment of this trademark symbolizes the approach that Wallace Wason, PLLC takes in aiding their clients on their path to serious recovery.

This registered trademark encapsulates the firm's purpose to secure serious recovery and compensation for individuals who have suffered serious harm due to medical, dental, or legal malpractice, or personal injury incidents.

Wallace Wason, PLLC’s dedication to excellence has earned acclaim from both clients and other legal professionals alike. The firm is situated directly across King Street from the Alexandria Courthouse, in a brand-new, light-filled, bright and modern fourth floor office located above Tatte Bakery and Cafe in Old Town Alexandria. The firm’s attorneys have decades of experience and a wealth of knowledge in prosecuting plaintiffs’ cases against negligent healthcare professionals and others, enabling them to navigate the complexities of malpractice and injury claims and achieve top outcomes.

"We are thrilled to have secured the trademark registration for our slogan," remarked Wallace B. Wason, Jr., the lead attorney at Wallace Wason, PLLC. "It serves as a testament to our commitment to helping people who have suffered serious harm in obtaining the serious recovery and compensation they rightfully deserve."

With the trademark registration in place, Wallace Wason, PLLC has solidified its brand identity and distinguished itself as an esteemed legal resource for individuals in need of help with medical, dental, legal malpractice, and personal injury claims including birth injury and wrongful death throughout Virginia and nearby jurisdictions.

About Wallace Wason, PLLC:

Wallace Wason, PLLC is a law firm specializing in medical, dental, legal malpractice, and personal injury cases, with offices in Alexandria, Virginia and serving clients throughout Virginia, Maryland and the District of Columbia. Committed to securing justice and fair compensation for their clients, the firm and their attorneys offer personalized and comprehensive legal representation for malpractice and personal injury matters. With a reputation for excellence, a compassionate approach, and a record of million-dollar verdicts and settlements for their clients, Wallace Wason, PLLC is a trusted choice for those seeking serious recovery from serious harm.

###

For more information, please visit wallacewason.com or contact:

Susan Martin

Communications Specialist

Wallace Wason, PLLC

(703) 638-7712

smartin@wallacewason.com